次の対話文は、高校生の Takako が、留学先のロサンゼルス (Los Angeles) でお土産を買いに行ったときの店員 (Clerk) との会話です。対話文を読んで、あとの各問いに答えなさい。(8点)

Takako : Hello. I want to buy something for my father. ( ① )

Clerk : Sure. How about T-shirts?

Takako : Good idea. My father likes basketball. Are there any T-shirts that have names of basketball teams?

Clerk : Yes. Look. These T-shirts have names of basketball teams.

Takako : Which team is from Los Angeles?

Clerk : This team is from Los Angeles. Do you like this T-shirt?

Takako : Yes, but ( ② ) Do you have a smaller one?

Clerk : Yes. How about this?

Takako : Good. I'll buy it for him.

Clerk : I think he will like it.

Takako : I think so too. I'm excited because I can see my family soon in Japan.

Clerk : When will you leave America?

Takako : I'll leave here next week. I have been in Los Angeles for one year. I haven't seen my family since I came here.

Clerk : I see. My daughter has lived in Japan since 2005.

Takako : Really? Where does she live in Japan?

Clerk : She lives in Kyoto. I went there three years ago.

Takako : I like Kyoto very much. I have been there many times. How was Kyoto?

Clerk : It was fun. I went to Kyoto to meet her and visit her photo exhibition then. She is a photographer. She takes pictures of beautiful Japanese scenery.

Takako : That's great. I want to see her pictures in Japan.
